

Irregular Border marriages

Title	Reference
The latest edition of the leaflet Irregular Border and Scottish runaway marriages (2000), which is published on the General Register Office for Scotland website, provides details and last known locations of the register volumes.

Register transcripts

Marriages at Gretna Hall, 1829 to April 30 1855	SH 015.000.80
The 'runaway registers' at Haddington, 1762-1795	MT 029.001
Irregular Border marriages. The registers of Henry Collins. Marriages at Lamberton Toll, 1833-1849.	MT 082.001
The 'Gretna Green' for Ireland: irregular marriages at Portpatrick, Wigtownshire, 1759-1826 transcribed and with an introduction by Arthur Brack	MT 204.001

History

Irregular Border marriages by "Claverhouse" [1934]	T 627.000
Irregular Border marriages 2 [1981]	T 627.002
Irregular Border marriages: the whereabouts of the records of irregular marriages on the English Scottish border [Society of Genealogists' leaflet 10, 1989]	T 627.001
Gretna Green: a romantic history	T 627.011
The story of Lamberton Toll, the Gretna of the east: historical and romantic	T 571.790
Marriages at Lamberton Toll, 1753-1940 [Published in 'Proceedings of the Berwickshire Naturalists' Club', volume XL, part 2, 89-94 (1975)]	T 571.805

See also:

Library guide – Births, deaths and marriages – transcripts and indexes

Miscellaneous records catalogue for details of original Irregular Border marriage registers held in the custody of the Registrar General for Scotland