MINWar Registers

There are three registers:

- South African War (1899-1902), which records the deaths of Scottish soldiers;
- World War I (1914-1919), which records the deaths of Scottish persons serving as Warrant Officers, Non-commissioned Officers or Men in the Army or as Petty Officers or Men in the Royal Navy;
- World War II (1939-1945), which consists of incomplete returns of the deaths of Scottish members of the Armed Forces.

There are also printed lists for World War I and records relating to US Military transports.

South African War:

In many cases the date of death has not been recorded or was not known. In such cases, the computerised index records the year of death as 1902 (i.e. the last year of the Boer War).

Appendix 3: Additional Information on First World War Deaths

Death entries in the service returns for the Great War give the place of birth as 'Scotland'. You can find out where in Scotland a soldier was born by consulting the official printed lists of 'Soldiers died in the great War, 1914-19'. This eight volume work is also part of the Minor Record series (ref. volumes 137 to 144) and is available on microfiche.

1. Note the regiment and battalion. This information is given at the top of the page on which the death is recorded in the service returns, eg. 2nd Battalion of the Gordon Highlanders.
2. Check the list below to find the volume and part number of the regiment – the Scottish Regiments are shown in bold type. Some of the Scottish regiments are on more than one fiche and the list gives details of the battalions covered on each, eg. The 2nd Battalion of the Gordon Highlanders can be found in volume 143, part 65, fiche 1.
3. Complete an orange SU12A slip (for our example the reference is volume 143, part 65) before accessing the microfiche.
4. The regiments are broken down into battalions which are not always in numerical sequence. Within each battalion soldiers are listed alphabetically by surname.
